

LEADERSHIP: INVENTING THE FUTURE

In an era defined by the convergence of a global pandemic, geopolitical conflicts, climate crises, mass migrations, and the transformative impact of technologies like AI, the familiar paradigms of 'business as usual' have come to an end.

With economic certainties disrupted and traditional strategies challenged, leaders find themselves at a critical juncture. The turbulence of recent years has accelerated the pace of change, demanding a fresh perspective on leadership. Against this backdrop of unprecedented challenges and opportunities, the question emerges: How do we navigate this evolving landscape and lead with vision and resilience?

For the first time ever, Vanto Group is offering this breakthrough leadership programme in Ireland!

Leadership: Inventing the Future is a 3.5 day programme designed for organisational leaders to create a future beyond the challenges of present circumstances – a future that provides a sustainable competitive advantage, elevates performance and positions them for success.

Grounded in the best-selling book, The Three Laws of Performance: Rewriting the Future of Your Organisation and Your Life, this event is designed for attendees to apply this cutting-edge approach in their current business environments.

PROGRAMME FOCUS

This programme is ideal for addressing your top-priority concerns, including:

- Achieving new levels of growth
- Fostering innovation for a sustainable future
- Transforming an entire corporate culture
- Achieving high performance with a satisfied workforce
- Fulfilling on a new vision, strategy or opportunity
- Reinventing an entire organisation

Participants will gain access to:

- The critical factors that drive team performance
- Hidden assumptions that limit organisational velocity
- The power of high-performance language, especially when dealing with uncertainty and challenges
- Authentic organisational alignment and coordinated action
- New ways of collaborating with others that expand your ability to produce results
- The tools to have your vision sustained over time and owned by others throughout your organisation

The programme is presented as a dialogue and includes inquiry and discussion, practice, exercises, work in small groups, and assignments between sessions.

LEADERSHIP: INVENTING THE FUTURE

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

The programme is suited to all in leadership positions – from top executives to emerging leaders – from all sectors (business, community, government and sporting organisations).

The programme will be of most interest to those intent in creating the next step for their organisation and themselves, for those that see this time of uncertainty as a time of opportunity.

As the programme provides an opportunity to work on an organisational initiative, it is most effective if attended by multiple members of the same team and/or organisation.
